 - Lisa shared there is grant money through the library. She will try and see if she can get electronic copies for the group. ACTION UNFILLED, Library vendors do not include this book title.
 - GC Library has an eBook copy to be used one user at a time (Melissa) > Email Lisa if you need assistance
- Daniela > Curate a playlist of video clips/recordings to post? Maybe re-post Cedrice Webber's event from last May? NOT SELECTED TO DO
- Lorena informed everyone that the Latinx Heritage Month events are scheduled on Oct. 1st, 6th and 13th.

May is API Heritage Month

- Two scenarios to plan - On-campus vs. Remotely
 - On-campus > Cooking Demo, Revisit May 2020 plans we had
 - Remotely > Cooking Demo online
 - Lorena manages the Grossmont College Facebook account that we can use to do Facebook live events or Zoom events
 - Guest speakers (college and career readiness)
 - Brian Rickel who works in the Arts
 - Nemie suggests that we can use the Zoom breakout room to our advantage, breaking people out into their discipline rooms.
 - Online event where someone teaches us basic ukulele lessons or taiko drums or tai chi
 - A Day in the Life of... type of event, focusing on a specific discipline/industry
 - Wendy suggested having someone in the Counseling Department lead talks on resumes and interviewing topics

- Genie suggested we create a cookbook that includes everyone's favorite recipe and everyone was in favorite of idea
 - Lorena suggests we get students to participate in the cookbook creation too
- Origami/crafts demo?
- ACTION: Lorena can talk to Anthony C about a possible musical performance for May 2021
