BUSINESS

A. ASGC Constitution Article I. Title of Organization and Framework, Section D. Composition

Lu Tri “Vi” Huynh | 25 minutes (info/discussion/action)

The Committee shall review Article I. Title of Organization and Framework, Section D. Composition to add one more Director role (Director of Operation) and increase the number of Board Member positions available.

Proposed Amendment by ASGC President:

The Board of Directors shall consist of the following:

- Three (3) Executive Officers: President, Executive Vice President, and Vice President of Finance.
- Six (6) Directors: Director of Campus Activities, Director of Student Legislation, Director of Publicity, Director of Board Affairs, Director of Website Development, and Director of Operation.
- Board Members: The Board shall not exceed ratio of one (1) Board Member per every one-thousand (1,000) students enrolled by the first census date of each fall semester and one (1) additional member of any remaining number of students over five-hundred (500). Executive Officers (President, Executive Vice President, and Vice President of Finance) are excluded from this ratio.

B. ASGC Constitution Article II. Membership & Eligibility, Section B. Board of Directors Eligibility

Lu Tri “Vi” Huynh | 10 minutes (info/discussion/action)

The Committee shall review Article II. Membership & Eligibility, Section B. Board of Directors Eligibility to remove and clarify certain requirements for Board of Directors Eligibility and eligibility to run for the office of President.

Proposed Amendment by ASGC President:

As a prerequisite to entering office, all elected or appointed members of the Board of Directors shall satisfy the requirements stated by Board of Trustees of the Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District and:

1. Maintain a cumulative 2.5 minimum grade point average.
2. Maintain a minimum current enrollment of six (6) units or more at Grossmont College (except summer semester and winter intersession).
3. Be free of all GCCCD academic and disciplinary restrictions.
4. Be able to attend mandatory Board of Directors meetings.

In addition to the requirements above, to be eligible to run for the office of President, candidates shall:

1. Have completed one (1) full semester at Grossmont College.
2. Have completed a minimum of six (6) units at Grossmont College.
3. Be seated on the Board at least $\frac{3}{4}$ of a 16-week semester (12 weeks) and serve on the Board up to the time of elections, unless such candidates for President are unavailable.

C. ASGC Constitution Article IV. Inter Club Council (ICC), Section B. Composition

Lu Tri “Vi” Huynh | 10 minutes (info/discussion/action)

The Committee shall review Article IV. Inter Club Council (ICC), Section B. Composition to clarify the composition of the Inter Club Council.

Proposed Amendment by ASGC President:

The ICC shall be composed of:

1. ICC Chair: ASGC Executive Vice President shall be recognized as the Chair of the Inter Club Council. ASGC President shall be recognized as ICC Co-Chair in case they agree to serve in the role, or Interim Chair for ICC in case the office of ASGC Executive Vice President is vacant for any reason.
2. ICC Vice Chair
3. ICC Treasurer
4. ICC Secretary
5. ICC Director of Activities: ASGC Director of Campus Activities shall be recognized as ICC Director of Activities in case they agree to serve in the role.

6. ICC Representative: A representative from each of the actively registered clubs & organizations on campus. ICC Representatives hold the right to vote on all written resolutions and recommendations made by the ICC Chair.
7. One (1) Advisor

The officially recognized ICC Chair shall consult with other ASGC members and/or those who express interest in the roles to appoint individuals to the remaining roles within the ICC in case of vacancies.
